the mineral resources of British Columbia. The St. Paul papers are filled with glowing accounts of the prospects of mining speculations in that region, with the view of diverting some portion of the tide of emigration through their city. We must say that we are unable to appreciate the patriotism of an idea which seeks to prevent emigrants from spreading themselves over our own territories in order that they may populate those of Great Britain. But competition is the soul of business, and it is by the efforts of those who own rival routes that the resources of this great continent are developed.

OUR SPECIAL WASHINGTON DESPATCH.

WASHINGTON, April 29, 1859. Washington, April 29, 1859.

The War Department this morning received a heavy mail from Col. Johnston, commanding the forces in Utah. The complications and difficulties between the federal and judicial officers is fully explained, and his course in ressustained and justified. It appears that Gov Department, and directly opposite to ructions of Col. Johnston and the judicial The Cabinet to-day had the subject osideration. Gen. A Case of There Love.—Our readers will remember the lady of whom we gave an account, who used such exercious to marry the young sconnidel, Van Nees, during his incarecration in the Mohawk street jail, not withstand the fact that her betruched had just received a sentence of five years and upwards in the State Prison. Shorth McKowan, who returned from Auburn yesterday, reperts that this same lady has followed Van Ness to that place, and after repeated exhibitations, had been parmitted to see and embrace her afflanced "lovyer." She declares the will wait until the five years are out, and then marry for darling in spite of sheriffs and keepers. It is one of the most remarkable cases of remantic constancy we have been deflately.—Ulica Herald, April 26.

THE STOCKBRIDGE INDIANS—MORE EXCITEMENT.—We are informed, from a reliable source, that a party of Stockbridge Indian committed a trespass upon the innes of Mr. Asron Saunis, near Copake Lake, in this county, hast week, by cutting down soveral trees. An action was brought for trespass, and the parties appeared before Justice Finkle, of Tapikando, on Tuesday. The defendants put in a piec of title to the lands. McCuns —The Police Commissioners yesterday continued taking testimony in the case of McCune. No new facts taking testimony in the case of McCane. No new facts were elicited, but the case assumes an interesting phase from the near approach of the expiration of the terms of from the near approach of the expiration of the terms of commissioners Nye and Ward. To day is the last day that those gentlemen can legally serve, and at this critical juncture the conneal for McCurve, and at this critical juncture the conneal for McCurve aims for a postponement on secount of the circleness of Captain Kissner, a material witness in his behalf, who he swearasts not it a fit condition to be examined, either athis house or elsewhere. He therefore asks that the case be put over until Mr. Kissner are can attend. "Batt," say the Board, "some of us go out of office to-morrow, and we want to close this case before we leave." The lawyer remains inexorable, particularly as the new Commissioners are supposed to be more favorably disposed towards his client; and the Board is to decide what to do in the matter this morning. They claim that Captain Kissner is well enough to talk, and the result of their determination is anxiously looked for. It seems difficult for them to close the case and effect the dismissal of McCane without affording his counsel ground for application for a new trial. The end is not yet.

Hamilton, a prostitute, living at No. 124 Greenwich street, was yesterday taken into custody by officer Boonstoad, charged with robbing a countryman of a gold watch while in her company. The officer found Maria is her room when he called, and upon being told that she must consider herself a prisoner became terribly excited, expressing an abborrence to being locked up in the Tombs, deciaring that she would rather die than be incarcerated. Under the pretence of procuring her clothing she went not an adjoining room or barroom, and while there selzed a limit and attempted to stab herself, but fortunately was seen and provented. The officer, while on the way to the City Hall court, was induced to enter another saloon with the girl, as she desired to get the proprietor of the place to go her brill. While in the saloon she again attempted to cut her throat, and before discovered had inflicted several terrible cuts, which she had made with a pair of selssons. She was, however, again prevented in accomplishing her purpose, and conveyed to the Tombs in a carriage, where her wounds were dressed and she properly carefor. The wounds were dressed and she properly carefor. The wounds were very ugly gashes, but are presumed not to be fatal.

The Detroit and Milwaukie road, in connection with the Great Western, made the run to Milwaukie and easier as a guick time as the others make to Chicago, but has no direct connection with Chicago. The Milwaukie and Chicago road would, however, afford an opportunity of reaching Chicago via Milwaukie.

Funeral of Miss Maringa Sawyer.—The funeral of Miss WAY .- Our article on this subject in Thursday's HERALI

Matilda Sawyer, who was burnt to death last Thursday morning, took place yesterday afternoon from the resi-dence of G. L. Brower, No. 41 Rivington street. The funeral services took place at two o'clock, in the presence of a large assembly composed principally of the friends of the deceased lady. Rev. Dr. Armitage, of the Norfolk street Baptist church, officiated.

SEVENTY FIRST REGIMENT.—Our notice with regard to the encampment of the Seventy-first regiment, a day or two encampaient of the Seventy-Brist regiment, a day or two since, was premature. The regiment have determined to encamp, but the time and place have not yet been acted upon or settled. Some of the citizens of Buffalo have sof-fered to raise a large sum to entertain the regiment if they go there, but the probabilities are they will not go so far from home. No action has been taken by the Com-mon Council of Buffalo.

A COUNTRY MERCHANT IN TROUBLE .- On the 14th of anuary last, Isaac Mix, Jr., manufacturer of carriages in Broadway, appeared before Justice Compily, at the Lower Police Court, and made a charge of false pretences Lower Police Court, and raade a charge of false pretences against Anthony York, of Lima, Livingston county, for having, as he alleged, obtained some carriages, valued at $2,600, by means of false pretences. A warrant was issued for the arrest of the defendant, who was arrested at Genese, but subsequently released on a writ of habeas corpus issued by Judge Strong. A hearing was recently had in the case, when the writ was dismissed and the defendant handed over to the custody of the policeman. On the way to New York a second writ of habeas corpus was issued, and the case came up again for a hearing, when the tributal decided to hold the prisoner to ball in the sum of $2,500 to appear before Justice Councilly at the Tornabs or Menday next. The officer then returned to New York, and on his arrival here yesteeday gave the above account of the manner in weich be tost his prisoner.

section of the city were displayed, under the direction of Alderman Maujer, for those of Williamsburg, and Aldor-Adderman Manjer, for those of Wullamsburg, and Aldorman Messerrole, for those of Greenpoint. The display was witnessed by a large concourse of people. The place so lected in Williamsburg was on the open space bounded by North Second, Given, Anniey streets, and Graham avenue. Tari's band was in attendance, and all passed of pleasantly. Here there were thirty-one different pieces set of, prepared by J. W. Hadfield, Ess. They consisted of the following pieces:—Battery of Marons, Colored Uluminations, Duplay of Bombshells, The Waoping Willow, Shells of Colored Stara, Mosaic Battery, Star of America, Flight of Streamers, Mines of Serpents, Guillochus or Raleidoscope, Batteries of Colored Candies, Rainbow Shells, Cascade, Green Illumination, Girandois, Ascandor Wheels, Saxon Cross, Tribute to the Fire Department. This was gotten up expressly for the occasion, and represented a fremm standing on a pedestal and holding in his hand a bose pipe. In the distance was a representation of a hydrant, batteries of fire numps, crystal fountain, revolving sun; the whole concluding with a grand allegorical device representing Neptuno in his car rising from the sea, and changing to a representation of a temple. This, as well as all the other pieces, was loudly applauded. In Greenpoint the display took place from an open space on Greenpoint Bases, Piepeubring & Co., of Greenpoint. The Washington Band was in at tendance here, and large numbers assembled to witness the display. The pieces were eighteen in number, and consisted of a grand illumination, several fancy pieces of great beauty, and concluding with a representation of the temple of Bherty, with cascades, eagles and American diags. A motio was also represented on this piece, "Water Introduced April 1869." They were much admired and applauded.
